

SUNDAY SAVINGS.

Thoughts on Various Topics in Recent Sermons.

From an epitome of sermons beyond the Rocky Mountains on a recent Sunday in the San Francisco Call the following are selected:

MONEY MAKING.

Both the wise and foolish seek money. It is sought for by many for what it brings. Some seek it simply for itself. In Egypt there was an aristocracy of priests, in China of literature, in England of birth, but in America it is an aristocracy of wealth. There are some things that even money cannot buy, but still money enters into everything. Money is character. The way a man saves or spends his money reveals his character. You may see his virtues in money, and you may also find his vices. — G. C. Jones, Methodist, Pittsburg, Pa.

SOCIAL EQUALITY.

Men never were and never will be on a universal footing of equality in the social scale. The reason is obvious. Men are not born with the same intellectual or physical qualities as all other men. Some come into the world possessed of minds of great intellectual capacity, while others are born almost into insanity; some are created with bodies that will develop unusual physical strength; others are weak and puny from birth. There must always be classes among men. There must always be the rich and the poor. — Archbishop Janssens (Catholic) at Richmond, Va.

AMERICA'S NEEDS.

The time is at hand when America must pass out into the larger view of charity and justice; when we must recognize our mission as a nation. Questions of wealth, of self-aggrandizement have so filled our range of vision that the principle of giving to the world an example of a nation filled with the spirit of ministration has been too poorly realized. Our literature needs new inspiration, our political and social economy needs a new saving force in it; our religious life needs something it does not possess. — Rev. W. F. Sloo, Denver, Colo.

CATHOLICISM.

I was once in terror of Rome, but by study I am convinced that the danger is slight and rapidly diminishing. Protestantism in the world is increasing in membership twice as fast as Romanism. I will never utter a word, however, that will kindle hostility. Recognizing all that is Christian in the Roman church, cultivating the most cordial relations, co-operating in every way possible with Romanists, I will strive to advance, not hinder, God's evident design. — Rev. E. T. Root, Congregationalist, Baltimore, Md.

KNOWLEDGE.

A man may have all the knowledge that this world's life can give him and yet not be a good man. Knowledge will lift a man higher in this world. Goodness will lift a man higher in any world. Knowledge will give a man power, goodness will give a man direction of power. Knowledge will consecrate a man's intellect to get for himself, goodness consecrates a man's intellect to get in order to give for the uplifting of others. — Rev. Dr. Egbert, Independent, St. Paul, Minn.

PERSONALITY.

Men rally not around some fundamental truth, but around some strong personality. It was not the abstract doctrine of State-rights that fired the South, but the strong personality of John C. Calhoun and John Randolph. In the same way men array themselves under their chosen leaders, who present their ideas in a living and powerful personality. — Rev. W. C. Partridge, Baptist, Scranton, Pa.

HEROISM.

The true hero may be brave; not afraid of anything that stands between him and duty, not given to counting the cost, but in doing right. He must speak out on occasion, against wrong, regardless of risk or result, even when the wrongdoers are people in authority and the wrong one is a despised outcast of another nation or another sect. — Rev. T. T. Lloyd, Baptist, Philadelphia, Pa.

That Tired Feeling

Is a common complaint and it is a dangerous symptom. It means that the system is debilitated because of impure blood and in this condition it is especially liable to attacks of disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the remedy for this condition, and also for that weakness which prevails at the change of season, climate or life.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently on the bowels and liver. 25c. 116-11.

Erysipelas in the Face

Nearly Blind, But Perfectly Cured

Health, Appetite and Strength Renewed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Hood's Sarsaparilla is splendid. I had long been troubled with erysipelas, and three times had it in my head and face. I became nearly blind and my hair all came out. My husband wished me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I only took three bottles before from my old-time trouble and long sufferings. It has never returned until last winter while I was ill with the grip, a slight attack broke out on my face. After my sickness I was not well; became easily tired and lost my appetite. I resumed taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and am now using the fourth bottle and can run up and down stairs as spry as ever. The tired feeling is gone and I have a good appetite." Mrs. Wm. E. Baringer, Olive Ridge, New York.

"A BUILDING BURNED RECENTLY in Milwaukee, without insurance, because a clerk FORGOT to renew certain policies promptly as instructed.

"He was discharged.

"A few days later, the owner died without insurance on his life, leaving a widow and three young children in poverty, because he had NEGLECTED to insure. As procrastination is more culpable than forgetfulness perhaps the owner is having his punishment NOW.

"MORAL: Consultation and office treatment free. Special attention given to procrastinators."

DRY GOODS

In Honolulu there is always something that demands the attention of the fair sex. More especially is this true when good bargains are offered. In catering to the wants of the Honolulu ladies, the merchants must buy judiciously and select only the most artistic designs. Especially is this true of white dress goods. I received by the AUSTRALIA a new line of these goods that are very pretty. They must be seen, however, to be appreciated. I also received a fine line of Ladies' Shirt Waists and Corsets. Now that the Cholera is over and I feel, socially, has resumed its normal condition, the dry goods business must increase materially in the next month. Anticipating this demand I have laid in this fine stock of goods and they are now ready for your inspection, and can be purchased at a reasonable figure.
